Register now for Credit Valley Artisans' fall courses

Registration is now open for Credit Valley Artisans' fall courses.

There will be a total of six courses or workshops with instruction in drawing, painting, pottery, stained glass and weaving. They include:

- Drawing Workshop— Anyone Can Do It on three Saturdays, starting September 10
- Decorative Stained Glass —Beginner levels I & II on eight Thursdays starting Sept. 15
- Pottery on the Wheel —All Levels on 10 Tuesdays starting Sept. 27
- Watercolour Workshop on six Wednesdays starting October 5
- Weave a Basket on Oct. 1
- Five Hour Scarf Workshop on November 5.

The class sizes are limited and small in size. The instructors are well known professional artists or experienced members of CVA Guilds. All of the instruction takes place at the Cottage in Cedarvale Park at Main Street and Maple Avenue in Georgetown.

Application forms with more information, times and cost are available at a number of locations around Georgetown and vicinity such as the Georgetown Library, The Civic Centre, Artisans Attic on Main Street as well as the Cottage in Cedarvale Park.

For information or application forms, telephone 905-877-8401 and leave a message for the registrar Heather Salt to get back to you.

Registration to fill the classes will be in order that fees are paid; classes fill quickly.
