

Adult Learning Centre seeks tutors for fall adult literacy programs

As any non-profit group will tell you, it is more difficult today to recruit volunteers than ever before. If you were going to donate your time— why would you choose to be a tutor of literacy skills?

sources and the location to provide an adult student with a personalized learning environment.

- Through regular reassessment and contact with our Training Coordinators you will be "Opening the Doors" for another adult in this community to enjoy a fuller life.

Like to know more? The Adult Learning Centre is recruiting now for fall training. Call the Adult Learning Centre on 905-873-2200.

Here's why.

- You will be a believer in the cause. That is, you will already know that there is a huge need for adult literacy tutoring in this community. One in five adults need some help whether it be reading and writing, basic math or some introduction to computers.
- You will be prepared to give up three hours a week of your time for a period of one year. In return, we will give you the tools you need, the re-

Families asked to share story on active living

Generations Physiotherapy Centre is holding a contest encouraging everyone to get their families active and share their story of how they did so via a letter or video.

The Challenge/Contest is free and open to everyone, but stories must be submitted to Generations Physiotherapy Centre on or before September 1.

The winner will be chosen based on the best story and/or most original way in which the family is getting active.

Simply drop off your story to Generations Physiotherapy Centre, 371 Mountainview Rd. S., Unit 7, in south Georgetown and, if possible, bring a non-perishable food item that will go to the Georgetown Bread Basket food bank.

The prize list includes passes for yoga, fitness/wellness assessment, massage therapy, gift cards for a free golf lesson, dance class, boot camp, sporting equipment and more.

For more information call 905-702-0888.
