

HillsView: Busy days ahead this fall for seniors' centre

By FLORENCE RIEHL
Georgetown Seniors Centre

I feel fall in the air. That also means a busy time for our Centre. The HillsView for September and October is available for pick up at reception. Find out what is going on and what is coming up. This is an important communication source to our members but only if you take the time to read it. The week of September 12-13 is Open House Week. Something every day to tweak your interest. There are a number of new activities and you are invited to come and try them out. The following is a list of activities:

Monday, Sept. 12

9 a.m.— Qi Gong, Carpet Bowling, Woodcarving; Noon— New member tea (Invitation only); 1 p.m.— bid euchre, computer Q&A

Tuesday, Sept. 13

9 a.m.— crafts; 10 a.m.— Great Canadian Tour rep. and Collette Vacations rep; Noon— Open house barbecue; 1 p.m.— bridge; 1:30 p.m.—TRY IT— Tap dance the Basics

Wednesday, Sept. 14

9 a.m.— TRY IT— Dance Fitness;

10 a.m.— TRY IT— Gentle Yoga, Mingle and chat; 1 p.m.— euchre, social bridge, art club

Friday, Sept. 16

9 a.m.— Carpet bowling, crafts; 10 a.m.— falls prevention; 1 p.m.— duplicate bridge.

A correction re: the date of the Reception Volunteer workshop. It is to be held on Tuesday, September 6 at 10 a.m.

Bennett Healthcare Centre is coming to the Centre on Thursday, Sept. 14 from 10 a.m. to noon and holding a focus group on a Continuing Care project from self care to long-term care.

Everyone is welcome to participate.

Tickets are now available for the Justus concert to be held by your Centre at the Alliance Church on Sunday, October 16, at 3 p.m.

Your $15 ticket includes show and refreshments. All proceeds benefit your Georgetown Centre.

Signup sheet is out for those interested in going to Niagara-on-the-lake to the Shaw Festival Theatre to see The Admirable Crichton following lunch at the Prince of Wales Hotel.
