

Auxiliary officers needed

Looking for a volunteer opportunity to help serve the community and learn about policing at the same time? Halton Regional Police Service has just the position.

The Service is currently seeking additional members for its Auxiliary Policing Services Unit.

Auxiliary members:

- Support the work of regular police officers on local crime prevention initiatives
- Participate in ground searches for lost or missing persons
- Volunteer at numerous, large-scale, annual events throughout the year.

For additional information and applications visit the Halton Regional Police Service website at (www.haltonpolice.ca) or contact the Auxiliary Policing Co-ordinator, Staff Sergeant Robert Lloyd at 905-878-5511 ext. 4705 or email, Auxiliary-Policing@haltonpolice.ca

Dice Run nets $9,600

Despite having to endure torrential rain, a hardcore band of motorcyclists took part in the recent inaugural Georgetown Hospital Foundation Dice Run and raised nearly twice the targeted amount for the hospital CT scanner project.

Organizers of the Run, which began at FreshCo on Guelph St. in Georgetown, had hoped to raise $5,000 but managed to collect $9,600.

Ninety-five of the 105 riders who began Run finished the five-hour route, and later attended other fundraising festivities at the Georgetown Legion.

Wellington-Halton Hills MPP Ted Arnott and local resident Fred Helson, who recently donated $1 million to the hospital expansion project, drew the name of the winner of the grand prize of two Air Canada tickets to anywhere in North America the airline flies.

The Glen Riders Motorcycle Club served as road captains on the route and each rider was asked to get sponsors for his/her ride.
