

Police blotter: Fishing gear stolen

Halton Police report approximately $2,500 worth of fishing equipment was reported stolen from a boat parked in a driveway on Harrison Place in Georgetown sometime during the overnight hours of Saturday evening/Sunday morning.

Among the items taken were two Daiwa rods and reels valued at $500, a clear plastic tackle box containing lures worth $450 and a Shimano rod and reel with a value of $350.

A GMC Sierra pickup truck was broken into early Sunday on Belmont

Blvd. in Georgetown and several work tools were reported stolen.

Entry was gained through the rear cap door.

No dollar value was given for the Hilti tools, which included a jackhammer, grinder, drills and a jigsaw.

Halton Police charged a Georgetown man with impaired driving and having over 80mg of alcohol in 100ml of blood after a vehicle was spotted traveling erratically northbound on Main St. at around 1:40 a.m. Friday.

Charged is John Harding, 42.
