

GLT Youth Company to hold auditions on Saturday

Georgetown Little Theatre Youth Company opens its doors to new members as well as welcoming back old ones.

GLTYC meet almost every Saturday throughout the school year. The age range is 10-18. Membership is $20 with $5 per any additional fall workshop, one wishes to attend. These are held from 1-3 p.m. on various Saturdays.

The Youth Company has two performance opportunities each season. On September 17th there will be auditions for the Y1A - Youth One Acts, which will be performed November 24-26.

For auditions one needs to phone the studio and sign up for a specific time. The spring performance, Pride and Prejudice auditions are held in December or January and the show is May 3-12, 2012. Rehearsals are held on weeknights as well as the regular Saturdays.

For auditions please call the studio 905-877-3422, further information may be found at www.georgetownlittletheatre.ca.

Talent agent in Acton on Sunday

Talent agent Patricia Jarosz is returning to Acton and looking for future stars this coming Sunday, Sept. 18. She will hold interviews 2-4 p.m. in the Acton Arena & Community Centre meeting room.

Jarosz signed a number of children last year, including 14-year-old Alee Pretto who will be seen in 60% of the upcoming season of Degrassi The Next Generation. She has also shot the lead in a short film, Training Wheels.

Jarosz also signed four-year-old Charlie Neal who shot his first film, Nothing Personal and brother Tommy who also shot a film, Balloon Circus.
