

Globe Youth Company to hold workshops

Globe Productions' Youth Company is holding a series of eight musical theatre workshops for kids, aged 8 to 13, on Saturdays, 1-4 p.m.

The eight-week fall session, beginning Sept. 17, costs $160, and is focused on education and preparation for musical theatre shows. All workshops will be held at Globe's new home, the Armoury. The Armoury is just inside the Georgetown Fall Fairgrounds at the corner of Park Ave. and Charles St.

Led by seasoned Globe professionals, topics will include: comedy and improvisation, music theatre dance skills, vocal technique, dramatic skills, costumes and props, how to audition, preparing a showcase performance and a field trip to the Milton Centre for the Arts on Nov. 12 to see Globe's fall production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Participants will meet the cast after the show and have a discussion with the directors about the production.

Globe's Youth Company is also presenting the musical Annie from May 11 to 13, 2012. Participants will gain skills useful for the auditions for Annie and at the same time, have fun putting on their own show for parents. The signup will be held tonight (Sept. 15) at the Armoury, 7-8:30 p.m. and on Sept. 17, 12-1 p.m. Info: Maureen, 905-877-4323 or www.globeproductions.ca
