United Way of Halton Hills President's Ball

Local musician Laura T. provides ambiance during the cocktail hour.

The United Way of Halton Hills continued its 25th anniversary celebrations on September 17 at the annual President's Ball at The Club at North Halton. The sold-out event included an extensive silent auction, a delicious meal and live music from Laura T. and Jazz Band. In addition to the usual funding, the United Way provided special one-time donations to 12 local agencies to help mark the United Way's 25th anniversary in Halton Hills. For more information on the United Way, visit www.haltonhills.unitedway.ca.
