ART CONTEST

Halton Region is looking for the next generation of artists to provide artwork for the covers of our 2012 Waste Management Guide & Collection Calendar!

- Students from kindergarten to grade 8, who live or attend school in Burlington, Halton Hills, Milton, Oakville, can enter. Previous contest winners are ineligible to enter.
- The artwork theme is You are the difference - reduce, reuse, recycle. Artwork must feature a Blue Box and GreenCart, and should showcase a positive environment.
- Be as creative, expressive, bold and colourful as you'd like. You can use chalk, charcoal, collage, crayon, marker, paint, and pencil.
- For artwork dimensions, contest guidelines and the downloadable Entry Form, visit www.halton.ca/artcontest.

Contest closes

Friday,
October 14
at 4:30 p.m.

All entries will be available for viewing at the Halton Regional Centre during Waste Reduction Week (October 17 to 23, 2011). The winning artwork, one per local municipality, will appear on the covers of the 2012 Waste Management Guide & Collection Calendar distributed to single-family houses. Winners will receive a prize package and have their picture sent to local newspapers.

Halton Region Celebrates Customer Service Week

Halton Region celebrates Customer Service Week by reminding residents to dial 211 and 311 for easy access to programs and services in Halton. Call centre staff from Access Halton use state-of-the-art customer service technology to provide callers with fast and easy access to information and services. Dial 311 to find out about garbage pickup, to access parks and recreation programs or ask questions about road construction projects. Dial 211 to find a family doctor, learn about options for childcare, inquire about employment insurance, job training programs and much more. Additional information is available online www.halton.ca.
