

Reminder: Free Thanksgiving dinner at GCRC

Georgetown Christian Reform Church (GCRC) is offering Thanksgiving Dinner to those who may be alone Thanksgiving Monday.

The deacons of the church have organized a turkey dinner with all the trimmings, to welcome anyone in the community to drop by to enjoy dinner, so they need not be alone.

The dinner will be served Thanksgiving Monday at the church, which is located at 11611 Trafalgar Road, just north of Maple Avenue. Vandersluis stressed that this dinner is available to anyone, not just those who are in dire straits. If they are going to be alone, they are welcome to attend.

Although it isn't necessary, organizers prefer those wishing to attend the dinner or require a ride to contact the church at 905-877-4322 or email the church at info@gcrc.on.ca to pre-register. By pre-registering, organizers have a better idea of how much food to prepare.

Today's election causes postponement of seminar

The Living Healthy seminar, scheduled to be held at Georgetown Hospital has been cancelled due to Election Day today, Oct. 6.

The seminar is Your Cataract Surgery, with Dr. Omar Hakim.

This seminar has been postponed to a later date.

Please watch the hospitals website for information on the new seminar date: http://www.haltonhealthcare.com/patients_living-healthy.php.
