St. John's United Church

Celebrate Oktoberfest close to home at St. John's United Church in Georgetown, where dinner and an evening of fun await on Saturday, October 22. Everybody is welcome to share authentic German food and entertainment for only $25 per person, with a cash bar offering beer and wine.

Strolling oom-pah musicians will perform during happy hour. Then diners can enjoy sausages, hot potato salad, sauerkraut, cucumber salad, red cabbage, and a dessert buffet.

Marilyn Willis enjoyed last year's Oktoberfest Dinner.

There will be table pounding and exuberant songs and games during dinner. Bring your own stein to add to the fun. Costumes are optional, but expect to see lederhosen and some funny hats. For tickets, please call the church office week day mornings at 905-877-2531 or Dave, 905-877-7668.

Movers' & Shakers' Marketplace

Now Is The Time If You're Thinking Investment Properties!

If you're thinking about investing in a rental property, low interest rates make this the time to get off the sidelines! Some people will try to discourage you from the start with "you need money to invest in real estate!" You do need a down payment - but your tenants are the one's that are going to keep the ball rolling. Make sure to have a strong lease agreement and do your due diligence to protect yourself against destructive tenants or those that don't want to pay. It's all a matter of protecting yourself beforehand. Also, don't let anyone tell you that the economy will bring you down. In fact, right now is a great time to buy investment property - take advantage of the unrest in many parts of the world that are keeping interest rates

low. Do your homework and you will be thrilled with the profits you can make.
