Congratulations to the following persons/businesses celebrating special achievements:

The following businesses are offering expanded services:

Center Stage School of the Arts is growing! They are thrilled to announce the opening of their second location at 142 Mill Street. They are now able to offer more quality classes in ballet, jazz, tap, acro, modern, musical theatre, hip hop and Zumba fitness. Classes are available from Monday to Saturday for ages 3 to adult and are staffed with fully qualified, enthusiastic teachers in well-appointed, bright studios all in the heart of beautiful, historic downtown Georgetown. Registration is still open but spaces are limited. Please drop by their head office at 36 Main Street South for more information or a tour.

Other announcements of interest:

Escarpment Views partnered with the City of St. Catharines in launching the autumn issue at the Lakeside Park Carousel in Port Dalhousie on September 4. Two groups – the U.S. National Carousel Association and the Friends of the Carousel – also participated in the celebration of the antique carousel, which was the subject of the current cover story. Escarpment Views was a media sponsor of Hamilton's Locke Street Festival on September 10, where as many as 2,000 copies of issues were taken by visitors. Escarpment Views was also invited to participate in the Telling Tales Festival at Westfield Heritage Village on September 18.
