

Waterscapes exhibit opens

A traveling exhibit from the Canadian Museum of Nature, entitled Canada's Waterscapes, was officially opened recently as RBC vice-president (Commercial and Agriculture-Guelph and North Halton area) Peter Guth (left) was joined by Leslie Adams of P.O.W.E.R., P.O.W.E.R. Youth rep Jesse Paragamian, Credit Valley Conservation General Manager Rae Horst and Colin Guth, as they together poured water from all four compass points to open the show. The interactive exhibit, which is located in Georgetown Market Place, around the corner from the Food Court, educates on the various needs of wetlands and marshes and their importance to maintaining our clean drinking water. The show, in a store space donated by Georgetown Market Place, will be on display until January.
