

One Book, One Halton Hills is underway at the library

One Book, One Halton Hills is officially underway at Halton Hills Public Library. One Book, One Halton Hills is a program designed to encourage everyone in Halton Hills to read the same book — think of it as one big book club. To take part in this annual event, read this year's chosen title, Midnight at the Dragon Café, a highly acclaimed novel written by former Acton resident, Judy Fong Bates. Copies are available at both library branches. You can also download an e-copy to your eReader by visiting www.download-centre.library.on.ca. Don't forget to pick up a One Book Bingo card at the library, you could win a prize! Info: www.hhpl.on.ca or 905-873-2681 or 519-853-0301.
