Your grandkids ask today, What grandpa had to say, We tell them all your stories, Your tales and all your glories. They ask if you had flare, We said you'd never swear. They asked if you were wise, We told them little lies. They ask if you can hear, We say you're very near. The older ones, they smile, They've seen old grandpa's style.

We luv you always, Glenny, Robin, Shayne, Guy and families

Acton Orators club holds its first contest

It was all smiles last Wednesday evening for the Acton Orators Toastmasters when they held their first annual humorous speech contest. Toastmasters from established Brampton and Milton clubs made the drive to Acton to offer their support to the new kids on the block who have been diligently following the program of communications and leadership since the club was formed last March. More members are needed for the new Acton club to charter with the Toastmasters International organization and be officially recognized. If you're not afraid to step out of your comfort zone and challenge yourself to excel, then this might be the group for you. Call Judi at 519-853-1856 or email ActonTM@gmail.com for more information. From left, Bill Bienia, DTM (Distinguished Toastmaster) and club president, second place speech contest winner Janet Veldhuis and first place speech contest winner Tanya Lucia.
