The Halton Regional Police Service, other police agencies and provincial partners conducted truck safety inspections on October 20 and 21, at the Mohawk Race Track parking lot in Camp-bellville and found a 38 per cent failure rate among the vehicles inspected.

A total of 158 commercial motor vehicles were inspected during the two days, and of those, 61 were placed out of service for safety violations (38.61% fail rate).

A total of 144 provincial offence notices were issued for various offences including: safety issues, load security, weight and dimension violations, improper documents and two charges under the Smoke Free Ontario Act.
