

With A Little Help From Our Friends returns to rock on Nov. 5

Based on the success of her first cancer fundraiser dance entitled "With A Little Help From Our Friends" in October 2009, local cancer supporter Anna Barkhouse decided it was time to hold another one.

"With A Little Help From Our Friends 2" will be held Saturday, Nov. 5 at the Croatian Church in Norval. Tickets are $40 each, and are available at JV Clothing, the Marketplace Lottery Kiosk, Pine Cone Music and from Barkhouse, 905-877-7082.

The Oct 2009 event raised $12,900 and Barkhouse hopes to top that this year. She will donate the proceeds to four cancer organizations: Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills (CASHh), The Weekend to End Breast Cancer Walk, The Ride to Conquer Cancer in support of Princess Margaret Hospital and the Healing Cycle in support of Credit Valley Hospital palliative care.

Hungry Hollow Smokehouse will be at the event handling the food services with their menu offerings of pulled pork and pulled chicken.

Barkhouse has arranged to have four bands donate their time to this fundraising event: Blue Radio, Neil Cotton and Hawk's Nest, The Boomerangs, and Station House.

Station House is an eight-piece rock band featuring a horn section, and covers material from Chicago, Lighthouse and the Beatles, to name a few. Formed originally in the early '70s, Station House reunited to play the 2007 Homecoming event. Members include Bryan Day (bass), Larry Thompson (keyboards), Peter McCormick (drums), Brent Barkhouse (guitar), Larry Fraser (vocals), John Wilcox (trumpet), Bruce Gregg (trombone) and Paul Thompson (trumpet).

The Boomerangs is a Georgetown-based rock 'n' roll band started in 2006. They bring together the unique appeal of '50s, '60s and '70s music with a high level of energy and musical skill. Members are Jack Pignatell (bass), George Stigger (lead guitarist), Doug Hastings (drums), Norm Douglas (vocals), and John Rawling (keyboard). Neil Cotton & Hawk's Nest has been voted Georgetown's favourite band on more than one occasion, by The Independent & Free Press readers.

Hawk's Nest is still performing in bars and private functions in the GTA. For more details, check out www.upickedcotton.com
