Quilt winner

Gisela Lamb (left) of Georgetown recently picked up her quilt after her winning ticket was drawn in the Georgetown Hospital Volunteer Association raffle. The quilt was donated by the Canadian Federation of University Women-Georgetown Quilters, and the Hospital Volunteer Association raised $2,401. On hand to make the presentation were CFUW Georgetown Quilter Eunice McGowan (centre) and Georgetown Hospital Volunteer Association president Marie Carney. The Georgetown Hospital Volunteer Association also held another draw for a Victorian doll, donated by Elizabeth Taylor, and it raised $221. Winner was Dianne Oliveira of Mississauga.

Acton woman charged following street brawl

An Acton woman is facing an assault charge after an incident in front of a variety store on Mill St. E., Acton Monday evening.

Halton Police say about 8:45 p.m. two females were involved in a fight in front of the store. It's alleged one female punched the other, forcing her to the ground. The victim suffered minor injuries, was checked by paramedics, but didn't require treatment at the hospital.

The accused was charged by police later that evening.

Charged is Emily Hamilton, 19.

Tires were slashed on five vehicles parked in the lot of a Churchill Rd. S. Acton apartment building sometime late Sunday or early Monday.

Cost to replace the eight tires is about $830. Two of the vehicles were entered and items were taken from one of them.
