

Holcim helps out hospitals

Holcim Canada presented a cheque for $105,000 to representatives from the three Halton Healthcare Service hospital campuses recently. Proceeds came from Holcim's fourth year of sponsorship logos on their Ready Mix Concrete trucks. On hand for the presentation in Milton were, from left, Bill Galloway (Holcim Canada), Brad Grant (Milton Hospital Foundation), John Pontarollo (Dufferin Aggregates), Laurent Thilbault (Georgetown Hospital Foundation), Bruce Galloway (Oakville Hospital Foundation) and Peter Moylan (Dufferin Concrete). In 2008, Dufferin Aggregates (Holcim) identified an innovative approach to raise funds for the hospitals with their Ready Mix Drum Sponsorship Program. The approach involved soliciting local partners and suppliers in the industry for donations in exchange for the opportunity to showcase their logos on the drums of select Ready Mix Concrete Trucks. To date this program has raised $75,000 towards improving healthcare in Halton Hills.
