

Six people facing 72 charges after items stolen from cars

Halton Police have charged six local residents with 72 charges in total in connection with thefts from autos in town from May through October.

The charges were laid after police executed four search warrants in Georgetown.

Charged are:

- Doug Bell, 26— 40 charges including possession of property obtained by crime, use stolen credit card, possession of unauthorized weapon (flick knife) and breach of probation.
- Christopher Ireland, 25— 1 charge of possession of property obtained by crime
- Derrick McKeown, 26— 24 charges including possession of property obtained by crime and breach of probation
- Corey Akkerman, 29— 4 charges including possession of unauthorized weapon (flick knife) and possession of property obtained by crime
- William Edwards, 22— 1 charge of theft under $5,000
- Michelle Dickson, 39— 2

charges for possession of stolen credit card and use stolen credit card

More than 120 pieces of stolen property were located. Police say many items haven't been identified to a specific owner, including a metal detector.

Halton Hills has seen the number of thefts from auto incidents increase from the previous year.

There were 320 incidents reported from January-October 2011, up 19% from the same time period last year. The number of incidents involving unlocked vehicles were also up from 79% in 2010 to 86% in 2011. Milton, a much larger town, has seen significantly fewer thefts from autos.

Police urge local residents to lock their vehicles, and not keep anything of value in them.

Anyone with information on thefts from autos in town is asked to call the One District Property Team at 905-878-5511 ext. 2113 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
