Fire, police blotter

House fire damage set at $425K

Halton Hills firefighters were called to a house fire on Dublin Line early Sunday morning.

The house, at 11713 Dublin Line, was vacant at the time and being renovated. It was fully involved when firefighters arrived about 1:20 a.m.

Damage is estimated at $425,000, and the cause of the blaze is under investigation.

ued at $60 each, a laptop computer, jewelry and cash.

A Halton Hills man is facing charges after a vehicle left the road near the intersection of Eighth Line and 10 Sideroad Friday shortly after 9 a.m. The driver suffered minor injuries.

At press time Halton Police had few details about the incident but said that the vehicle was a 2008 Ford Escape that had been stolen in Halton Hills earlier that day.

Charged with impaired driving, refuse to provide a breath sample, theft of a motor vehicle, fail to remain, driving while suspended and failing to stop for a red light is Howard Scott, 28.

Halton Police are investigating a break and enter into a home on Danby Rd. that occurred sometime between about 8:15 a.m. and 5:45 p.m. Monday.

Entry was gained through a forced-open window. Among the items stolen was a humidor containing 100 cigars val-

Giving back

Glen Williams resident Jane Cookson was one of the many people who participated in the Giving Back to the Glen: Tree Planting Festival at Glen Williams Park recently. Hosted by the Town of Halton Hills, P.O.W.E.R. and Credit Valley Conservation, the event saw 110 trees and bushes planted along the banks of the Credit River. Credit Valley Conservation hopes to make the tree planting festival an annual event.
