

SPORTS & LEISURE

Woods leads Raiders in win over Waxers

Leading scorer Brendan Woods had a natural hat trick in the second period as the Georgetown Raiders went on to beat the visiting Markham Waxers 5-2 Saturday night in an Ontario Junior Hockey League contest.

Woods' outburst rescued the Raiders from penalty trouble that caused them to play the final two periods with only four defencemen, and Markham went just 2 for 14 with the man advantage.

Caleb Apperson collected four assists on the night, while captain Alex Lubczuk notched an empty-netter and helped set up three goals. Jacob Bauman rounded out the scoring in front of close to 500 spectators at the Alcott Arena.

On Friday night in Markham, Georgetown scored three times in 91 seconds early in the second period to take the lead, but the Waxers potted the winner on a power play with 1:35 remaining in regulation to clinch a 5-3 win. Ryan Lopes, Krystian Yorke and Matt Chiarantano tallied for the visitors.

Raiders' head coach and general manager Greg Walters and second-year centreman Patrick Megannety will be back for Thursday's game in Brampton against the last-place Capitals. Both were in Langley, B.C. representing Team Canada East at the World Jr. A Challenge and came away with silver medals after a 4-2 loss to Team Canada West in Sunday's championship game.

Megannety, who is headed for Clarkson University next season, had a goal in Team Canada East's 4-2 semifinal victory over the U.S. on Friday.

This Saturday, the Raiders will host the Hamilton Red Wings beginning at 7:30 p.m. and the two teams are set to meet again on Monday in Steeltown.

NOTES: The Raiders acquired forwards Braden Kavaratzis from the Wellington Dukes and Michigander Dan McNamara from the Waterloo Black Hawks of the USHL... Former Raider captain Scott Wilson was named Rookie of the Week for Hockey East after a goal and two assists in the UMass Lowell River Hawks' 7-1 win over Boston University.

Grinding out a win

Halton Hills Grinders' defenceman Paul Chapman clears away some trouble as teammates Adam Batstone (left) and goalie Jamie Harding look on during the 27th-annual Georgetown Hockey Heritage Council's Oldtimers' Tournament earlier this month at the Alcott Arena. The Grinders won this contest against the Hamilton Old Wings 6-3, with Jeff Mosher and Dwayne Dunec having three-point games, but went on to lose in the men's over-35 D Division final 7-1 to their chief rivals, Halton Hills Rad & Tire. Joe Pedulla netted four goals in the victory. In the other division finals: 45+ C— Grand Valley Grizzlies 5, Huronia Hounds 1; 45+ D— West Mall Fossils 3, Thursday Thunder 2; 50+ C— Pokey Checkers 1, Sports Unlimited Beavers 0; 50+ D— Tottenham 4, Direct Hit 1; 55+— Midas Old Saints 5, Waterloo Wackers 1.

Photo by Jon Borgstrom

Senior Rebels come close to upsetting powerful Mustangs

The Georgetown Rebels came within a single point of knocking off the previously unbeaten Milton Mustangs Monday afternoon before falling in a third-and-deciding set in the Halton senior boys' quadruple-A volleyball championship held at Sheridan College in Oakville.

Winning the first game 25-17, the Rebels trailed for much of the second set but rallied to take a 27-26 lead, only to have the 13-0 Mustangs come back to win 29-27.

Milton then won game three 15-8 to claim the Halton title, although the season isn't over for Georgetown's seniors. They'll host a Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference AAAA semifinal match Wednesday at 3 p.m. against the Hamilton Wentworth league's finalist, with the winner moving on to face the HWCAA winner Thursday in Steeltown.

Milton will host Hamilton St. Mary's for the GHAC AAA championship on Wednesday.

Basketball

Attempting to win GDHS's first HSSAA girls' basketball title since 1985, the junior Rebels came up just a bit short last Thursday as the undefeated Abbey Park Eagles prevailed 39-36 at Sheridan College in Oakville.

Down by 11 points at halftime, coach Manny Saitis's side was able to cut the Abbey Park lead to 33-31 at one stage, but point guard Steph Wilson and captain Hayley Buist, who had a team-high 12 points in the game, fouled out in the fourth.

Emily Fisher added 11 points for the Rebels, Hana Gadzik hit a couple of three-pointers and Rachel Gorjup was the top rebounder on the day.

Football

CtK's juniors will play host to Bishop Reding Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. in an HSSAA Tier II semifinal contest.

The second-place Jags finished with a 4-3 regular season record, while Bishop Reding was 2-5.

GEORGETOWN
 TOYOTA

GAME OF THE WEEK

GEORGETOWN JR. A

RAIDERS

vs

HAMILTON

Saturday, November 19, 2011

7:30 pm

Mold-Masters SportsPlex (Alcott Arena)

GEORGETOWN JUNIOR "A"

www.georgetownraidersjra.com

See you at the Parade
this weekend!

