

Crafty shoppers

Madison, McKenzie and Ashton Brown got a jump on their holiday shopping on Saturday as they entered tickets in the raffle at the annual Acton High School Craft Show. Organized and run by AHS students, the popular show featured a wide variety of vendors, from jewelry and clothing to food and bath products, as well as a silent auction, raffle, face painting and visits with Santa.

Photo by Andrea Lefebvre

Plenty of upcoming craft fairs to pick from

The following is a list of upcoming holiday craft and bazaar sales.

Saturday, Nov. 19

Holly Fair: 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Bennett Health Care Centre. Crafts, bake table, tea room, raffles, vendors and more. All proceeds to the Residents' Council Fund.

Annual Christmas Bazaar and High Tea: 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Parish of St Joseph's, Patron of Canada, corner of John and Church Streets, Acton. Penny sale table, homemade baking, grocery basket and 50/50 draws. Enjoy High Tea which features sandwiches, relish tray, sweets and tea, coffee or juice before heading out to see the Acton Santa Claus parade. Or visit after the parade for a chance to see Santa up close and warm up with some hot chocolate.

See NOVEMBER, pg. 3

GIFT BASKETS & UNIQUE GIFTS
FOR THE FOOD LOVER ON YOUR LIST

YOUR NEIGHBOURHOOD CHEESE STORE
96 MILL STREET, GEORGETOWN
905-873-6000

CHEESE & CHARCUTERIE PLATTERS
TO SUIT ANY BUDGET