Acton Seniors Centre hosts community health lecture

By JULIE CONROY
Acton Seniors Centre

The final lecture by Marie Ram-say, titled More Pep in your Step: The Role of Exercise and Nutrition in Active Ageing, is on Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1:30-2:30 p.m. The lectures are free and open to any interested persons. The sessions have been very informative and well attended.

We had our first flutter of snow on Nov. 11, which will make our snowbirds start thinking about packing their suitcases ready for their trips to warmer places. If you are a member and plan to be away after Christmas could you please remember to renew your membership? The membership should be renewed by Dec. 31. The $25 yearly fee is excellent value for money. Where else could you go and enjoy monthly social dinners, Friday lunches, exercise, crafts and art classes. You might choose to use the laptops, access the Internet, or pick up a book or video from our library. You can even watch a movie or enjoy hiking with a great group of people.

We will be trimming the tree and decorating the hall on Nov. 22. If you are ready to get in the Christmas spirit, drop in at 1 p.m. and bring a little treat (cookies, cheese, crackers, etc) and enjoy the afternoon. Douglas Davey from the Halton Hills Public Library will be reading a selection of seasonal stories again this year.

The last Tuesday in November (Nov. 29), the movie will be The Holiday. Michelle says "Let's kick off the holiday season with a wonderfully romantic, feel good movie."

The next social dinner will be the Christmas Dinner at Blue Springs Golf Course on Thursday, Dec. 1 at 6 p.m. Not only will we enjoy a delicious turkey dinner (with a glass of wine) but Juke Box will be playing music suitable for dancing and listening. The tickets are on sale now.

Finally don't forget our wonderful Bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 26. We will have a penny table, Country Store, crafts, a great bake table, wonderful baskets to win, and of course, a delicious tea. New this year will be an art show and sale by our talented Wednesday afternoon art class. The bazaar starts at 11 a.m.

Connie Burk was happy to learn she had won $234 when her name was drawn at the weekly 50/50 draw on Friday afternoon.
