DAY, Bryan Murray

Peacefully at the Juravinski Cancer Centre, Hamilton on Monday, November 28th, 2011 in his 59th year. Bryan, loving husband of Susan (nee Collett). Dear father of Christopher (Michelle), Jeremy (Lauren), Lauren Levesque (Stephen) and Sean. Cherished grandfather of Leah Levesque. Dearly missed by his mother Shirley Day, and his sister Cindy Van Horn (Brian). Predeceased by his father Rex Day. Bryan will also be dearly missed by his parents-in-law Cindy and Garnet Collett, his niece Brianna, his nephews Kyle, Brendan, Alex and Greg and Aunt Lois, Uncle Ross, Aunt Willa, Aunt Elva and Uncle Earl. Bryan was a devoted husband and father. As a talented musician, his music was enjoyed by many. He also enjoyed motorcycling, cooking and being surrounded by the beauty of nature and his dogs. Visitation at Port Nelson United Church, 3132 South Drive, Burlington, on Saturday, December 3rd, 2011 from 10:00 am until time for a Celebration of Bryan's life at 11:00 am. In lieu of flowers, donations to Port Nelson United Church or to the Juravinski Cancer Centre would be sincerely appreciated by the family.

Pioneer(ing) effort

Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills (CASHh) recently received a $5,000 donation from Pioneer Hi-Bred, Canada's leading developer of plant genetics and hybrid seeds. The company held a contest called Operation: Seed the Need, where employees could nominate a charity of their choice that could benefit from a $5,000 donation. Georgetown resident Milena Deacon, who works at Pioneer's research centre in Caledon, nominated CASHh and out of nearly 400 employees across Canada, hers was chosen. Joining Deacon (left) for the presentation were CASHh treasurer Lee Manley and executive director Sheila Smith.
