

Haas impressive at Canada Cup

This time around, Halton Hills Blue Fin Kyle Haas was ready to swim with the big boys.

The 16-year-old recently represented the Blue Fins for the second straight year at the Canada Cup held at the Olympium pool in Etobicoke and posted a couple of impressive finishes.

Haas placed fifth in the men's 50m backstroke and was 12th in the 100m back amongst some of Canada's best swimmers.

"What is particularly good about this performance is that there is no age separation in Canada Cup," said Haas's coach, Mike Thompson.

KYLE HAAS

"Kyle is only 16 and is competing against 26-year-olds. He is performing at a level much higher than many of the athletes over 20 years old. He is a determined athlete who represents our team and community very well and we're all proud of him."

There were only two other 16-year-olds who finished in the top eight through 19 events and only three in the top 16.

Haas has been added to the Swim Ontario team headed to Beaverton, Oregon this weekend to attend the Paul Bergen Junior International Championships. He will also represent the Blue Fins at Olympic Trials, which begin on March 27 in Montreal.

Gillies on fast track to skeleton success

Skates Alive at Alcott

Over 300 skaters from around south-central Ontario will take to the ice at the Alcott Arena this weekend as the Georgetown Skating Club hosts the Skates Alive Midway West Area competition.

Sanctioned by Central Ontario Section Skate Canada, the event features skaters at all levels and ages from CanSkate to the advanced Senior StarSkaters.

The competition will run from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday and from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Georgetown last hosted Skates Alive in 2008 and it's considered a major fundraiser for the GSC, requiring dozens of volunteers to run.
