

Beary Merry Christmas

Acton Foodshare

In these difficult economic times, the Acton Foodshare's need for donations and volunteer help has never been greater. Founded in 1991 by a group of concerned citizens led by Joan Waldie, the Acton-based food bank provides easy access to food for those individuals and families who are temporarily in need of assistance.

The Foodshare exists as a service to contribute to the alleviation of hunger and the prevention of malnutrition for those in need. The food bank is intended as a discreet and non-threatening way to access food.

The Acton Foodshare is a member of the Ontario Association of Food Banks and is run by a volunteer board of directors who are appointed at an Annual General Meeting in May of each year. Daily operations are run by a group of dedicated volunteers. The Annual Scout/Guide/Calvinist Cadet Food Drive provides some of the food and the community donations of food and cash provides the rest.
