PAUL RICHARDSON
Sales Representative

Johnson Associates Real Estate Ltd., Brokerage is pleased to announce that PAUL RICHARDSON has joined the company as a Sales Representative.

Paul lives on a farm in the Terra Cotta area of Caledon with his wife and 14 year old son where he continues the family tradition of breeding and showing horses. He and his Family support many fall fairs and the Royal Agricultural Fair in Toronto.

With a son who has been heavily involved in Hockey, Baseball, Soccer, and Golf; Paul can provide the location of most Minor Sport venues and coffee shop locations across Southern Ontario.

Paul grew up in Brampton and Caledon and is a graduate of Mayfield Secondary School and has a degree in Finance from the University of Western Ontario.

After a 20 year career in the Telecommunications and Financial Sector, Paul has decided to pursue a career in Real Estate. Most recently Paul was with American Express where he was the Vice President and General Manager of Canadian Operations, Vice President of Consumer Service for Latin America, Canada and the Caribbean and most recently Vice President of Customer Experience for International Card Operations.

Paul looks forward to using his customer service and business expertise in serving as a Real Estate professional the community and he has lived for over 30 years.
