Letters to Santa

Dear Santa,
Thank you for watching over my mom last Christmas. She still is not always better but you gave me my Christmas wish for my mom to be home.

This year I would like my mom to have everything. She said she already does— me and my sister. Santa, could you please give my mom something special.

I really don't need all that much but maybe an army tank and men only after my mom's special present. Thank you for giving my mommy another Christmas. She is the bestist.

Love
James Kelman

Dear James,
I am very happy to hear that you, your mom and your family had such a special Christmas last year. I hope this year will be just as memorable for you. Once again, James, I am very impressed by your thoughtfulness in asking for a gift for your mom. Mrs. Claus and I have planned something special for her this year— and for you too!

Keep being a helpful boy, James, and please give your mom a big hug from me, Mrs. Claus and all the elves and reindeer up here at the North Pole.

Ho ho ho!

Santa

Dear Santa Claus,

This year I have tried to be good. I am not asking for much for myself.

I really would like a pair of moccasins and for my mom to have a good Christmas. She was really sick last year. Maybe you could wrap up a chef for her.

Wishing everyone a Merry Christmas all around the world.

Alyssa Kelman

Dear Alyssa,

I'm sorry to hear that your mom hasn't been well this year. I know this must be very difficult for you and your family, but I hope you can all forget about the tough times for a bit and soak up the happiness of the holiday season.

As for getting your mom a chef...I'm not sure if I can do that (chefs are very difficult to gift wrap), but I have something very special planned for both you and your mom.

Keep being a good girl, Alyssa!
Ho ho ho!

Santa
