Christmas Day volunteers wanted

Members of St. Alban the Martyr Anglican Church in Glen Williams prepare for their upcoming free Christmas Day community dinner. Members include (from left) Pauline and Don Robinson, Edythe Stiles, The Rev Aaron Orear, Kelly Connell and Bob Stiles. St. Alban's is hosting this annual Dinner for people who will be alone or who just want to share Christmas with their community. Volunteers are wanted to help out on this special day, 1 p.m. Dec. 25 at the church hall— by helping to cook (i.e. several turkeys), peel potatoes in advance, set up, serve, clean up, or post notices in various town locations or by providing donations of food (such as turkeys, pies, candy, other desserts) or small, wrapped or unwrapped gifts to be given out randomly, or by driving attendees who need a ride on Christmas Day. Local businesses and organizations are invited to donate or subsidize food. Please contact the office of St. Alban's, 905-877-8323 or Don Robinson, 905-873-6760 if you can help in anyway. For those who would like to attend call 905-877-8323 to make a no-cost reservation. Please leave your name and number on voice-mail if no one answers.
