NAGLE, Susan

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of Susan on Friday December 16th, 2011 after a courageous five year battle with breast cancer. Her positive spirit and unflinching concern for others prolonged her life considerably. Susan will be lovingly remembered and dearly missed by her adored children, Nathan and Lauren Williams. She lived each day in loving memory of her late husband, Norm Williams. Cherished daughter of Sylvia and the late Ross Nagle and kindred spirit of her sisters, Nancy and Sharon and her brother-in-law, Art. Will always be a hero to her nieces and nephews, family and friends. Heartfelt thanks to St. Brigid's School, the Georgetown community and CASH for their unending support to Susan and her family. Visitation at the Glen Oaks Memorial Chapel, 3164 Ninth Line, Oakville (at Dundas Street) on Tuesday December 20th, 2011 from 2-4 pm and 7-9 pm. Funeral Mass to be held at Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church, 14400 Argyle Road, Georgetown on Wednesday December 21st, 2011 at 11:00 am. We will celebrate her life and legacy at a lunch reception at the Royal Ontario Golf Club, 6378 Trafalgar Road, following the interment at the Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Donations towards the church's stained glass window in Susan's honour or the children's educational fund (TD Canada Trust) would be appreciated.

WALKER, Judith

November 30th, 1944 - December 16th, 2011

Passed away peacefully, at home surrounded by her family, on Friday December 16th, 2011. Beloved daughter of Doris Kirkham, and dear wife of the late Chris Walker (2007). Most dedicated and cherished mother of Amy and John, Sarah and Peter, and Paul and Julie. "Grandma Judith" to Isobel and Kathryn and sister-in-law to Frances. Judith was born in Boston, Massachusetts and raised in Wellesley, where she attended Wellesley College and Harvard University. A long time teacher in Peel, Judith loved her career and was known for her dedication to her students and for her 'hairy eyeball'. A consummate reader and traveler, Judith enjoyed spending time with her book club, 'ladies who lunch' and exploring the world with Chris, her family, and long time friends. She was especially devoted to her mother, Doris. Judith will be dearly missed by former students, colleagues, neighbours, friends, and family. Special thanks to Carlo Fidani staff, St. Elizabeth's and Red Cross Nurses for all the care and support Judith received. Friends will be received at the J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home, 11582 Trafalgar Road, Georgetown 905-877-3631 on Wednesday, December 21st from 7-9 pm. A celebration of her life will happen in January of 2012 at her home in Georgetown. In memory, contributions to the Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills (C.A.S.H.H.) or the Georgetown Hospital Foundation would be appreciated.
