

Two is better than one

Two is better than one when their names are Chico and Chiquita who are male and female Jack Russell terriers, and what cute, happy little dogs they are. Clothed in their black and white coats, these bright little dogs arrived at the Upper Credit Humane Society Shelter as "surrenders" as their owner had passed away.

The duo have true Jack Russell personalities and tolerate some dogs but would not suit a cat household. These endearing little Jacks led a quiet sheltered life in the same home for nine years and have had no experience with children, so young children would not be a suitable match. Children 12+ who would respect a warning growl would be considered.

Chico and Chiquita are siblings who have spent all their lives together and are now a healthy nine years young. UCHS feel they should be adopted together as it would be too stressful on them to be separated.

DON'T GAMBLE WITH YOUR LIFE

Shooting drugs is no different than shooting dice: you'll be on a roll for a while, but one time is all it takes to end the game.

Drug addiction can happen quickly and be hard to beat. So, why play games with your health and well-being? It's not a gamble worth taking.
