IN MEMORIAM

JACOBS, Shane Alexander

In loving memory of our dear son who passed away December 30th, 1991.

Shane,

*There's a family who misses you sadly, in a home where you used to be
A family who wanted to keep you, but God willed it not to be,
We did not know that evening what sorrow the next day would bring
The bitter grief, the shock severe, to part with our son whom we loved so dear
You bid no one a last farewell, no chance to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why,
God gave us strength and courage to face that dreadful blow,
But what it meant to lose you, no one will ever know
When shadows of night have fallen and we are all alone,
In our hearts there comes a longing, if only you could come home.
We mourn for you in silence, no eyes can see us weep,
But many a silent tear is shed, while others are asleep.
They say that hearts don't really break, dear God that isn't true,
That night that we lost you Shane, our hearts broke right in two.
Wrap your arms around him Lord, and keep him in Your loving care,
A few more steps, a few more years and soon we'll meet him there.
Of all that life has given us, and all that's left to do
We will never know a greater gift, than the years we shared with you.*

Mom, Dad, Michael and Lisa

December 28th, 2002

She is gone.

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back or you can open our eyes and see that she has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be full of the love that you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she is gone or you can cherish the memory and let it live on.

Lotsa love, Paul

BROWN, Margaret - In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother who passed away December 31st, 2008.

You can only have one mother,
Patient, kind and true,
No other friend in all the world,
Will be so true to you.
For all her loving kindness,
She asked nothing in return,
If all the world deserted me,
To my mother I could turn.
To those who have a mother,
Treasure her with care,
For you will never know her value,
Till you see her vacant chair.

Sadly missed by all her children,
Tiger, Ebony, April and Eleanor

LAYMAN, John Francis (Jack)
December 29th, 2006

In loving memory of a husband, father,

Remembering you is easy,
Missing you never goes away.

Sadly missed and loved
Jean, Frankie, and John and families
