Etobicoke man charged with theft

An Etobicoke man is facing charges after a 2000 GMC pickup truck was stolen from a John St. Georgetown home Wednesday afternoon.
Halton Police say about 4:45 p.m. the resident of the home was in the kitchen when he thought he heard the front door open, looked outside and saw his grey pickup truck was being backed out of the driveway by an unknown man wearing a grey hoodie.

Later that night police received a call from a Georgetown resident who reported who was responsible for the theft.
Police responded to a Georgetown business and arrested a man, and recovered the truck.
Charged with break and enter and theft over $5,000 is Vidal Cagua-Acuna, 19.
