great work this organization," said Bonnette. "I'm proud to continue supporting the organization in any way that I can and hope the community will support this incredible organization."

"The demand for our programs over the past year has been greater than we could have anticipated," said BBBS Halton executive director Barbara Ferrone. "It is critical we reach the goal for our kids and their families, so we can continue offering our services free of charge to families in need."

Tim Hortons local franchises are sponsoring the event.

It's easy to participate. Just gather five or six friends, family or co-workers, and register by calling 905-905-339-2355 or www.bbbshalton.ca
