

Georgetown man charged in pair of home break-ins

A Georgetown man is facing charges in connection with break and enters into two Georgetown homes Friday and Saturday.

Halton Regional Police report at about 11:45 p.m. Friday a female resident of a Corey Circle home was startled by a man in her house. She yelled at the man who ran out the door.

Police say entry into the home was gained through an unlocked window and the woman's wallet had been stolen from her purse. Police responded but did not find the man.

Officers were called about 1:55 a.m. by a resident of a Palmer Court home who reported that someone was knocking on their door and ringing the doorbell. Police responded and found a man in the home's garage.

The man was arrested without incident and through investigation police determined the accused had been responsible for the earlier break-in.

Charged with break and enter and theft, break and enter with the intent to commit an indictable offence, possession of stolen property under $5,000, possession of burglary tools, breach of recognizance, and breach of undertaking is David William Gibbs, 20, of Georgetown.

Police remind area residents to ensure their doors, windows and vehicles are locked.

Bundle up... it's turning c-c-c-cold

Halton Hills will have its first real taste of winter this week— with temperatures expected to dip to a low of -16C tonight (Tuesday) while the daytime high will only reach -13C.

The normal high is -2C. The cold snap is to continue through Wednesday when Environment Canada is calling for a high of -1C with periods of snow and a low of -14C.

But by Friday the temperatures are expected to climb back up to a high of 5C and low of -4C with a 60 per cent chance of flurries.

Saturday's forecast is calling for a 40 per cent chance of flurries or rain showers and a high of 2C.
