Major Darrell Jackson from the Salvation Army's Georgetown Community Church leads the carol singing.

Dozens of local seniors climbed aboard buses and headed into the foggy night on December 14 for the Kinsmen Club of Georgetown's annual Seniors Tour of the Lights. After checking out local Christmas light displays, the seniors headed over to the Salvation Army Community Church in Georgetown South where they enjoyed coffee, tea, egg nog, baked treats and a Christmas carol sing-along with the church's band. Thanks to the Salvation Army Community Church, Major Darrell Jackson, and the Kinsmen and Kin families for a great night!
