

Seniors urged to read new Centre constitution before vote

By FLORENCE RIEHL
Georgetown Seniors Centre

I'm sure, if you were in the vicinity of the Centre on Saturday evening (Jan. 21), you had to hear the laughter coming from within. Everyone was having a great time taking part in our second murder/mystery dinner. If you don't believe me ask anyone who was there. You talked me into organizing another one, set for Jan. 19, 2013.

You should be able to pick up your new HillsView for February, March, and April. Inserted in it you will find a copy of the proposed new constitution. Please read it carefully and be prepared to attend the special general meeting to be held Feb. 23 at 1 p.m. to vote on it. Lunch will be served prior.

Acceptance of the new constitution will put it into effect for our AGM on Thursday, March 29 beginning at 1 p.m.

Ticket sales ($5) for the Valentine's Tea on Thursday, Feb. 16 are going well. Seating is limited. Don't wait too long to get your ticket. Sandwiches, sweets, tea/coffee will be served and the Drama Club and our very own Seniors' Band will provide entertainment.

If you plan on taking part in drop-in programs and other special events you will need your new membership card. Time on the old one has run out.

The final sign-up date to join the Day Trippers going to the Mohawk Dinner Theatre to see Who's Under Where? is Feb. 26. I am told it is one of the most hilarious plays you will ever see. Now tell me who doesn't need a good laugh!

There will be a display and sale of Silpada Jewellery at the Centre on Wednesday, Feb. 15 from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. You can come in and peruse a catalogue prior to the sale. A percentage of sales will go to the Centre.

Have seen quite a few new people in the Centre to check us out. We must be OK as most of them took out a membership. Please make the new members feel welcome. Remember how you felt the first time you came to the Centre!

Acton Seniors plan Mardi Gras dinner Feb. 16

By JULIE CONROY
Acton Seniors Centre

Have you picked up your latest copies of Hillsview? They are at the front desk. There is a lot of very important information in this quarter's newsletter, including some proposed changes to our constitution. Please try and attend the Special Constitution Meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 21 at 1 p.m.

I hope you have your costumes, masks and beads out ready for the Mardi Gras dinner on February 16. It sounds like a lot of fun. We will be enjoying spinach salad, chicken and ham jambalaya served over rice, baby corn, French bread and decadent Doberge chocolate cake. We will certainly need to get up and dance after that delicious meal. A local musician, Monty, will be providing the Motown Music. Tickets are available at the front desk.

Due to lots of interesting programs being offered over the winter months there will be only one movie in February—Midnight in Paris on Feb. 14 at 1 p.m. Michelle tells me this is a quirky, cute film by Woody Allen. If you bring your lunch you will be able to hear Jordan Miller talking about managing pain through physiotherapy at 10 a.m. Enjoy your lunch and be ready for the movie.

Starting on Tuesday, Feb. 28, at 2 p.m., in partnership with the Acton Branch Library there will be an interesting new monthly program, Coffee, Books and Conversation. The topics will change from month to month. There is more information in Hillsview.

Are you looking for a laugh and a delicious buffet dinner? On Friday, March 23 the Gals on the Go (and some men too) plan to go to Mohawk to see Whose Under Wear?, a fast-paced comedy. I am sure it will be very funny, they always are.

Are you looking for the up-to-date information on services available in Halton Region? Doug Kelly will be here on Tuesday, Feb. 7, from 1-3 p.m. He will be here to answer questions about the new 2012 Seniors Directory.

Please note the Centre will be closed on Feb. 20 for Family Day. Hopefully you will be able to make this a special day for yourselves and your families.
