

Mar Blue Photography Studio Grand Opening

The Williams Mill Visual Arts Centre artists came together last month to welcome a new face to the flock: professional photographer Manny Martins. Located in the Yellow Building, Martins' Mar Blue Photography Studio and Art Gallery offers a wide variety of fine art photography for home and office showcasing images from all around the world. For more information, visit www.marbluephotography.com.

ABOVE: Team Hall – (from left) Jeff Cunningham, Val Ferguson, Christian Reyce and Jim Hall – may have won the Gouldiepsiel this year, but the real winners were the animals. Taking place at The Club at North Halton on December 27, the fun-filled curling tournament set a new record, raising $1,200 and collecting an estimated $400 worth of dry goods for the Upper Credit Humane Society. Thank you to hosts Dave Gould and Darina Hudec, to all the participants, and to the businesses that donated to the raffle table.

RIGHT: Yvonne (Jessica Watson), Andre (Sam Hancock) and Gabrielle (Ro Palumbo-Coates) come to terms with a bizarre social gathering in Georgetown Little Theatre's upcoming production of Neil Simon's The Dinner Party. Directed by Alex Kanarek, the play promises to be a hilarious evening of great entertainment thanks to Simon's signature style of witty one-liners and quick comebacks. The Dinner Party runs for three weekends at the Acton Town Hall Centre (19 Willow Street North, Acton). Evening performances are February 3-4, 9-11 and 16-18 at 8 p.m. with Sunday matinees on February 5 and 12 at 2 p.m. Purchase tickets via phone (905-877-3700), online (www.haltonhills.ca/theatre) or in person (Acton Home Hardware). For more information, visit www.georgetownlittheatre.ca.

The Georgetown Raiders Peewee A rep team does great work on and off the ice. The team helped out a local family in need this Christmas by participating in the Holiday Hamper Program run by Links2Care. The boys and their families collected items from a holiday wish list to donate to the family and also added a few extras, like wrapping paper, tape and food store gift cards.
