Local playwright's play to premiere in Caledon

Caledon Townhall Players

The Caledon Townhall Players are delighted to present the world premiere of Can Lightning Strike Twice?

This lively farce by Roxanne Thornton of Georgetown, is set in a run-down studio apartment in a large, Victorian house in Acton. The hapless hero, Howard Ducksworth, is a struggling, middle-aged writer and fall guy, played with quiet intensity by Steve Rossiter of Erin. His peaceful solitude is shattered one evening during a lightning storm with the arrival of his best friend Don Defleur and the irate ladies who are pursuing him.

Don, played by J. Van Olst of Georgetown, is an old-fashioned heel who uses his charm and sex appeal to lure the ladies, whom he callously uses and discards. Don dives for cover when the gun-wielding Molly arrives threatening to change him from a rooster to a hen.

Molly, played with gusto by Pamela Niesiobedzki of Erin, is a woman wronged and she is out for his blood.

Hotly in pursuit of her is Charlene, Don's sexy, young mistress and the cause of Molly's anger. She arrives full of fight to protect her 'Donsy Wonsy' from Molly's rage. Linda Smith of Acton plays the somewhat ditsy Charlene with an airy charm. The ensuing mayhem brings an officious cop to the scene followed by Howard's emotionally overwrought and feeble-minded landlady, both played with great whimsy by Daniel Olien of Caledon.

This play has it all...action, mystery, sex, robbery and finally, retribution. It is a wild ride with many twists and turns in the plot. Can lightning strike twice? It certainly can if, like Don Defleur, you refuse to reform your lying cheating ways.

Directed by Ian O'Brien of Georgetown, this captivating play opens on February 16th and runs consecutive weekends until March 3rd. Show times are 8:15 p.m. evenings with a gala matinee on Feb. 25th at 2:15p.m.

Tickets are $15 and $12 respectively. Dinner theatre on Feb. 25 at Knox United Church, at 6:30 p.m. is $28. Please call the Box Office for reservations: 519-927-5460. For information visit www.caledontownhallplayers.com.

IN MEMORIAM

CARTWRIGHT, Bruce

Left us on February 15th, 1997

Time may erase many things,
But this it will never,
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.

*We miss you,
Family and friends*

DELIA

August 7th, 1976 - February 14th, 2004

Our hearts still ache with sadness,
Our silent tears still flow,
For what it meant to lose you, Delia,
No one will ever know.

Deeply missed, never forgotten.

*Your loving family,
Mom, Dad, Kevin, Jacob, Sandi,
Simon, Ayden and Alyssa*

Myrel Ellison

August 28th, 1929 to February 12th, 2007

It has been five years since God saw you were tired and whispered 'Come Home with Me.'

Memories and treasures no one can steal,
And gone are the days we used to share.
Your smiles, hugs and words of wisdom,
But in our hearts you are always there.

Until we meet again.

*Love,
Pat, Tara, Rob, Mackenzie and Logan*

In loving memory of

Maria Vieira

July 17th, 1930 - February 13th, 2002

If tears could be a stairway,
And memories a lane,
I'd walk right up to Heaven,
And bring you home again.

Love your husband, Frank and family
