BIRKDALE PLACE LOVES TO CELEBRATE LIFE...

...and we truly did so with our residents first Valentine's Day Feast, enjoyed amongst family, friends and many guests, in our Great Hall. "The food was nothing less than spectacular" said Penny Robishaw of the entire event. We enjoyed such delicacies as ginger glazed salmon on a bed of leeks, chicken in sun-dried tomato and Asiago sauce, homemade stuffed ravioli, Swedish meatballs, shrimp and other salads, and an amazing array of desserts.

Chef Norm and his dedicated team created a feast that could easily rival any fine dining experience!

"Dining is always a central focus here at Birkdale Place, but it was great that so many residents and family members raved about the wonderful meal and evening" said Peter Fisher, Executive Director.

Edwina Doddington, our Director of Life Enrichment coordinated many aspects of this spectacular first event, and we enjoyed the vocal talents of Milton's own Urban Legend. Edwina stated that our teamwork assured success for this wonderful evening!
