Pyjama bash

Christine Caissie, left, and Lisa Bonofiglio let loose during the recent My Sister's Pink Pyjama Party 2012 fundraising event held at the Croatian Centre. A total of $9,400 was raised with proceeds supporting The Weekend To End Women's Cancers and Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills. The event was organized by a group of Georgetown women, with assistance from local merchants, who have been participating in the 60K Walk for the Weekend To End Women's Cancers for the past nine years. This year there was a total of 265 participants and the ladies were treated to a visit from several Brampton firefighters.

Police/fire calls: Horse goes through ice

Halton Hills firefighters were called to a Dublin Line property about 2 p.m. Saturday for a report of a horse through the ice on a pond.

When crews arrived, the horse was out of the water and in the stable. This incident comes on the heels of a man and dog falling through the ice on Fairly Lake last Wednesday afternoon. Both the man and dog were rescued by emergency crews, and were fine.

A spokesperson with the Fire Department stresses that ice thickness "means everything."

Canada's Life Guarding experts recommend ice be a minimum of four inches for walking, six inches for snowmobiling and eight to twelve inches for a vehicle.
