

Catholic singer to perform on March 3

Contemporary Catholic recording artist Joe Zambon will perform as part of the "Church Supper Concert Series" at Norval United Church on Saturday, March 3.

Zambon, who also serves as a pastoral assistant at York University, is a mainstay of Catholic youth events and is featured on a Massive Worship compilation CD of up and coming worship artists. The acoustic singer/songwriter will perform songs from You Are I Am (2008), There and Here (2009) and a new album to be released this spring.

The Church Supper Concert Series is a fundraiser for Norval United Church's young adult mission trip to Nicaragua. A team of six congregation members will be traveling south this May to meet and serve alongside United Church global partners in the capital city of Managua. Prior to the concert, the mission trip team will prepare and serve a Nicaraguan-style dinner.

Dinner starts at 6 p.m. Concert starts at 7 p.m. Tickets $10 for dinner and $10 for concert—are available at the door for people who reserve by emailing concerts@norvalunited.ca or calling the church office (905-877-6122).

Ryan Laird to headline fundraiser March 2

CMT country recording artist Ryan Laird headlines for Mayfield Pub Night 2012, 7 p.m. on Friday, March 2, at Mayfield Secondary School, 5000 Mayfield Rd.

Tickets are $20 per person and can be purchased through Tish Hansen, at 416-434-1717 or tish@thansen.ca.

The event will support the Mayfield Student Rugby Tour of Wales. Students will be travelling throughout England and Wales during March Break where they will play three games against experienced rugby clubs.

Raised on a small beef farm near Belwood, Laird's single, I'm Your Man, broke into the top 10 in Canadian country music charts last year, and he is the opening act for Alan Jackson's Canadian tour this year, with tour stops scheduled in major cities across the country.

The fun-filled evening will also feature the eclectic music of local musicians, The Clay Hills Band and the comedian Cory Baylis.
