

Social media safety expert to speak Tuesday

Most students in Grades 5 and up are on Facebook, and their average "Friend List" count is over 175.

Formspring—the latest global social networking site—is the fastest growing site among students.

Who are they really sharing with, online.

Find out at Facebook 101 plus Twitter and Formspring, to be held on Tuesday, Feb. 28, 6 p.m. at Christ the King Catholic Secondary School. Described as an absolute must-see event by Ontario's school boards, by parents and police services, this one-of-a-kind presentation is led by Chris Vollum, a recognized authority on Facebook, Twitter and Formspring.

As of January 2012, Facebook 101 has been presented to more than 210,000 students throughout 22 Ontario school boards and independent schools.

The complete Facebook 101 presentation will be available on CD for $10.

Presented by the Parent Councils of Christ the King and Georgetown District high schools.

Globe space to feature youth theatre section

The Kiwanis Club of Georgetown invites residents and business owners who want to know more about the Kiwanis Club to join a special outing.

On Wednesday, Feb. 29, the club is off to see The Old Armoury renovation project at the Georgetown Fairgrounds at 12:15 p.m. Lunch is provided. Kiwanian Lois Fraser and Mark Llewellyn, both board members of Globe Productions, will conduct a tour of the building, share its 146-year history and discuss their future plans for an indoor theatre space and a youth theatre section in the west end of the building.

The Kiwanis Club meets on Wednesdays at noon at the Club at North Halton. The club will host two annual fundraisers (Lobsterfest on June 1, 2012) and Beachfest (Nov. 23, 2012) and all the funds raised go back into the community. Its largest projects to date have been contributing to the Kiwanis Field of Dreams project, the Gellert Centre pool facilities and the current Georgetown Hospital emergency waiting room area.

If you would like to find out more about Kiwanis or attend this tour, please contact lfraser@fraserdirect.ca or kmcdermot@puroclean.com.

Knox to host World Day of Prayer

The 2012 World Day of Prayer will be held on Friday, March 2, at 7:30 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church, 116 Main Street South, Georgetown.

The World Day of Prayer, observed annually on the first Friday of March, is an invitation for all Christians to pray together.

This ecumenical day of prayer is coordinated by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada and the women of Malaysia. This year the theme is "Let Justice Prevail". From the very beginning the women who prepared this worship service cultivated an inner orientation to their context with their opening greeting "Selamat Datang" which means peace and welcome. There is an accompanying gesture of placing palms together with a slight bow as a sign of respect. To be able to live together in harmony is a gift from God for which the people of Malaysia give thanks.

Along with the theme "Let Justice Prevail", the women of Malaysia name fair and just governance as the basis for peace and harmony in the social order.

Everyone is invited to pray and learn about Malaysia and its unique culture and heritage.
