Henderson Tour rolls into Georgetown

Eleven-year-old Ben Sabourin of Georgetown not only got a chance to meet Team Canada 1972 hero Paul Henderson (right), but got a chance to feel what it was like to score the Summit Series-winning goal against the Soviet Union (left) as the Henderson Jersey Homecoming Tour made its final stop in Halton Hills this past weekend. The tour's 48-foot double trailer exhibit stopped in 103 communities across Canada.

Peewee Chargers nipped in final of Acton tourney

Things didn't start off well for the Acton Sobey's Chargers at the Acton House League Hockey Association's annual tournament earlier this month as the hosts were beaten 6-0 by the Centre Wellington Fusion in the opening game of the peewee select division.

But the Chargers found their stride and thanks in part to the goaltending of Jack Coulighan, won their next two games to earn a rematch with the Fusion in the championship game.

Acton grabbed an early 3-0 lead on Centre Wellington, but the Fusion made a late charge and forced overtime on a goal with just 26 seconds remaining, then won the title in OT.

Preliminary round— Centre Wellington 6, Acton 0

Acton Chargers' goalkeeper Jack Coulighan corrals a loose puck in his crease with the help of defenceman Ben Armstrong during the opening game against Centre Wellington in the peewee select division of the recent annual Acton House League Hockey Association Tournament. The Chargers lost this contest 6-0, but ended up in the final against Centre Wellington, where they were edged 4-3 in OT.
