Men's summer rec league needs players

The Halton Men's Non-Contact Recreational Hockey League is currently registering for its 29th consecutive season.

This individual-entry league provides recreational hockey for players aged 30 and over, playing a once-per-week schedule of games on Wednesday nights beginning in mid-May, concluding in August.

All games are played in prime time in Oakville. Registration and further info can be found at www.hmhl.bizland.com or call 905-849-9712.

Scoreboard returns in March

The Independent & Free Press publishes its Scoreboard section of minor sports news and scores each month and welcomes submissions for the March edition.

To submit game results or tournament reports to our sports department, email emaher@theifp.ca or call Eamonn Maher at 905-873-0301 ext.

Submitted action shots or team photos will also be considered for publication.

Due to space limitations, we can only publish photos for teams that have won tournament, league or play-off championships.

A recreational women's team representing the North Halton Girls' Hockey Association earned the championship at the recent Orangeville Tigers' Sweethearts Tournament. In the preliminary round, Team Twisted defeated Orangeville Red 4-1 and Oshawa Yellow 7-2 before being edged 4-3 by Orangeville Purple, but the local squad rebounded to beat Orangeville Purple 5-1 in the final. Team members (front, from left) are: Sylvia Gray, Leah Fendley, Amy Cross, Corrinna Terwood, Jen Heelis, Bev Milne, Jessica Perry. Back row: Margie Parker, Wendy Derjugin, Sylvia Roberts, Jessi Atkinson, Janette Jones, Jen Milne, Tammy Knechtel. Absent: Coach Phillip Milne. Submitted photo
