CARDS OF THANKS

Anthony John Matthews

"Tony"

The family thank the many people who have felt our sorrow at the passing of such a fine man... Georgetown Runners, Pratt and Whitney colleagues and retirees, friends near and far. The Sunnybrook team, Dr. Peliotis who fought for funding for such a rare cancer, Dr. Walsh and nurse Melba. Credit Valley's Dr. Glen Jones who gave Tony 10 extra years of life with his pioneering radiation procedures and nurse Julia; always there to help us through. Dr. R. Bourns our local GP for 32 years. Dr. Furness, Dr. Zeni, all the kind caring nurses, and Physio and staff of the Georgetown Continuing Care Complex. The Acclaim health nurses Ruth, Rupi and Jericho. Sheila of CAS who at all times was very supportive. Rob and Jason of Jones' Funeral Home for their expertise in presentation. Geoffrey for reading the Eulogy, David leading the way with the pipes and the poem, Don, Adria, Colin, Terry, Wally and Charlie for their special words. The Rev. Mario Charpentier Chaplain of the Georgetown and Milton Hospitals, grateful thanks for helping Tony on his journey to eternal life with the knowledge we were all there to love and support him; in return he managed to wait just a little longer to awake and see his granddaughter in a miracle of will power, the last marathon. Also with your guidance the life changing impression when we experienced God's presence in the final days. Rest in Peace dear Tony, beloved husband, father and grandfather to Elaine, Ellen, Greg and Pepper Lily, Taria, Mike and Wyatt.
