Blazing Fiddles perform at the GAC

Georgetown Alliance Church, 290 Main St., is presents The Blazing Fiddles in concert on Friday, March 30 at 7:30 p.m.

The group is comprised of Brielle Goheen and Jeff Taylor on violin, Chris Kettlewell on a standup bass, and Adam Poot on the keyboard. Each of these young people are talented musicians in their own right— all with very impressive bios— but when they get together as the "Blazing Fiddles" their music truly lives up to the name of their group.

Their repertoire includes classic fiddle tunes, foot-stomping Celtic music and popular show songs all with a distinctive flair that will bring you to your feet and leave you wanting to hear more. This is one concert you do not want to miss!

There is no admission charge to attend the concert and no offering will be taken.

For more information, call Doug Kelley at 905 873-0249 or e-mail: adm@togetheratgac.com.

To Be Determined Theatre holds shows next week

To Be Determined Theatre Co. will perform Mirror Game by Canadian playwright Dennis Foon, for school children and the public next week.

The youth group, based in Acton, is performing for four local schools as well as two public performances at the Acton Town Hall Centre on March 30 at 7 p.m. and March 31, at 2 p.m. Tickets can be purchased online, www.tobedeterminedtheatre.ca or at the door for $10.

"These young actors have spent the past 10 weeks rehearsing twice a week on this intelligent and relevant play which deals directly with the struggles youths deal with daily, and how a strong will and great friends can turn any situation around," says Alexandra Lent, artistic director for TBD theatre company. "These young actors have worked very hard to memorize their lines, develop their characters, learn acting technique, as well as work on their public speaking skills, team work, confidence and have had a lot of fun doing so. I am proud to present this polished piece of Canadian theatre to local schools and public and I do hope you get a chance to come out and see it!"
