

Halton Hills Christian School Drum Workshop

Matthew Swant is very excited to make so much noise in the library.

Connor Cathcart learns how to drum quietly and loudly.

RIGHT: Kyle deRoos keeps the beat.

Halton Hills Christian School students marched to the beat of their own drums last month when the school hosted a hands-on drum workshop. Over the course of two days, all of the school's students had the chance to learn the fine art of drumming from Jim Perry – a.k.a. the Guelph Drum Guy. The school was booming with percussion as the kids tested out their new knowledge on big drums, small drums and even a drum kit. Bravo, HHCS!
