DEATHS

HILDEBRANDT, Charles

At Oakville Trafalgar Hospital, on April 17th, 2012, Charles, aged 87, of suspected lung cancer (mesothelioma). A lifelong naturalist and conservationist, he emigrated from Germany in 1951, later opening Charles Hildebrandt Insulation Ltd., with offices in Toronto, Sudbury and Kitchener. He served two terms as a town councillor for Georgetown in the early '60s. Upon early retirement he gave his time to gardening, maintaining his 16-acre nature preserve, travelling, leading hikers and snowshoers through wilderness areas around the world, photography, writing, carpentry, and studying. He earned his B.A. when he was 79. He was learning Spanish, his 3rd foreign language, in his mid 80s. Difficult for his family to love, he combined strict discipline with soft sentimentality. He was devoted to the care in her later years, of his wife Ursula, who predeceased him in 2007. He is survived by his daughters Barbara Jennings and Gloria (Mike Davis), grandchildren Donna Herold (Tony), Brit, Trent (Jackie) and Grant Jennings (Karen), great-grandchildren Paul, Niko, Brooklyn, Breeana, Fiona, and his little dog Thomas. Burial will be on Friday, April 20th at 2:00 pm in Greenwood Cemetery. A celebration of his life will be on Saturday April 28th 2 to 4 pm at Jones' Funeral Home, 11582 Trafalgar Road. In memory contributions to Escarpment Biosphere Conservancy or Nature Conservancy of Canada would be appreciated. To send expressions of sympathy visit

IN MEMORIAM

HILTS - In loving memory of my dear mother Viola Hilts, who passed away April 19th, 1994.

If roses grow in Heaven Lord,
 Please pick a bunch for me
 Place them in my Mother's arms,
 And tell her they're from me.
 Remembering her is easy,
 I do it everyday
 But there is an ache within my heart,
 That will never go away.

*Sadly missed and always remembered by,
 daughter, Helena*
